Day 02 PANAMA CITY

City Tour and Panamá Canal (Miraflores Locks)

This historical tour will begin at the "Casco Antiguo" (Old Quarters), built in 1673 after "Old Panama" was sacked and burnt. The predominant architectural style of the "Casco Antiguo" is French and Spanish colonial styles. This part of town is the home of the famous Golden Altar, which survived Morgan's plundering and destruction of "Old Panama". At the Independence Plaza, you will see the most beautiful building houses as the modern Museum of the Interoceanic Canal.

Next you will continue to the Miraflores Locks. Of the three sets of locks in the Canal, this is the closest to Panama City. You will observe the magnitude of this engineering marvel, which is still operating after a century using the same hydraulic system since its inception. There will be a short audiovisual presentation and other exhibits at the Visitor's Centre.

Day 03 PANAMA CITY

Shared full day excursion to Embera Indigenous Community

After breakfast, meet a 30-minute bus ride to Chagres National Park. Upon arrival at the National Park, you will enjoy the breath-taking beauty of the rainforest while aboard small motorized canoes that take you through Lake Alajuela and the Chagres River until you reach the friendly people of the Embera Community.

You will learn about their culture and traditions and have lunch in their thatched huts. You will then have the opportunity to go for a refreshing swim before returning to the city at the village's beautiful tranquil natural pool or at a waterfall, which is approximately 20 minutes walking distance. You will also be able to purchase some of their incredible crafts.

There is a bar and restaurant and kayaks available to hire. The hotel provides is easily accessible from the airport and provides a reliable base from which to explore the archipelago.

Day 05 BOCAS DEL TORO

Shared full day excursions to Dolphin´s Bay, Crawl Cay, Red Frog Beach & Hospital Point

Start with a short boat ride from Bocas del Toro pier to Laguna Bocatorito. Surrounded by small mangroves that form a kind of raft that is home of several families of bottlenose dolphins, the probability of spotting dolphins is about 95%. You will spend some time watching them jump and play around your boat. After seeing the dolphins, we will continue to Cayo Coral for the impressive coral formation and its rich marine life. Have lunch at Cayo Coral. Then you will continue on to Red Frog Beach through Bastimentos Island. Here you will have the opportunity to see the poisonous red frogs or relax on the beautiful white sand beach. After enjoying the beach you will continue on for the last part of the tour; Punta Hospital, which has a small beach ideal for snorkelling.

Day 06 BOCAS DEL TORO - ALMIRAMTE - BOQUETE

Baru Volcano National Park is 4 km away. The Finca's restaurant serves fresh, seasonal cuisine and offers wonderful mountain views. The café and gift shop sell fresh coffee grown on the plantation. Hotel Finca Lerida Coffee Plantation and Boutique Hotel is an ideal base for hiking and birdwatching. The town of Boquete is just a 10-minute drive away.

 Day 07 BOQUETE

Shared full day Los Quetzales Trail

As one of Panama's most visited and popular hikes, named for a particular species of bird called the Resplendent Quetzal, Los Quetzales trail unites the two communities of Boquete and Cerro Punta. Quite elusive, the Resplendent Quetzals are a magnificent and rare treat to observe and are a favorite among many birding enthusiasts. In addition to the Quetzal, there are more than 220 other bird species native to the area. From Boquete to Cerro Punta, the 10 km trail climbs steadily (roughly 2500 vertical feet) as you pass from tropical rain forest to tropical cloud forest and takes approximately 4-6 hours to complete. Please be advised that you may need to bring warm clothing and a rain jacket if you have one.

The island also has a dining room overlooking the sea, with fresh seafood and views to the sea, uninhabited islands, mangroves, mountains and the Kuna community of Playon Chico. The island is surrounded by coral reefs and a small beach with white sand and crystal clear water. The lodge offers tours to the rainforest, river, mangroves, waterfall, Ukupseni (Playon Chico) community, and cemetery and to other uninhabited islands with palm trees and white sandy beaches.

Day 10 KUNA YALA

Day at leisure.

A trip to the San Blas islands should not to be missed. Small islands of paradise with pure white sand beaches and crystal clear waters great for swimming or snorkelling. The autonomous Kunas living on the San Blas islands are considered one of the most highly organised indigenous groups in Latin America. Kuna Indians have their own language and the women wear gold nose rings and brightly coloured 'molas', a decorative handsewn appliqué on the front of their blouses. They also have a long threads of beautifully patterned beads wrapped around their fore-arms and from their knees to their ankles. If you are looking for something culturally fascinating as well as some fantastic beaches, visit the islands of San Blas.
